

A topographic map of a mountainous region, likely in the Alps, with a large red '0100' overlaid on it. The map shows contour lines, roads, and some place names like 'Hohenbach' and 'Teich'. The red '0100' is a large, bold, sans-serif font, with the '0's being slightly larger than the '1'. The map is in black and white, with the red text providing a strong contrast.
